

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: January YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: February YEAR: _____

	DATE
TEMP °C	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: March YEAR: _____

	DATE
TEMP °C	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: April YEAR: _____

	DATE
TEMP °C	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: May YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: June YEAR: _____

	DATE
TEMP °C	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: July YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: August YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: September YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: October YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: November YEAR: _____

TEMP °C	DATE
	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.

VACCINE FRIDGE TEMPERATURE CHART

MONTH: December YEAR: _____

	DATE
TEMP °C	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
>12
11
10
9
8
7
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
< -2
Initials

- Record temperatures daily. Indicate minimum and maximum temperature with an X; current temperature with an O.
- Remember to reset the thermometer after reading each day.
- Any deviation outside 2-8 degrees for >15 minutes should be reported immediately to the SSWAHS Public Health Unit on ph 9515 9420. Vaccines should be labeled “QUARANTINED” in the fridge, and all GPs and staff informed, until such time that a decision of action is advised by the Public Health Unit.